PX-TR - PX Total Return Index

updated: 30 October 2026

INDEX DESCRIPTION

PX Total Return Index (PX-TR) is a free float market-cap weighted total return index made up of the most liquid and largest stocks of companies traded on Prague Stock Exchange. Due to the consideration of dividend payments the index reflects the total return of the underlying portfolio. The index is calculated in CZK and disseminated in real time.

PX-TR is designed as a tradable index to be used as an underlying instrument for structured products and for standardized derivatives (futures & options).

Constituent weights are capped on a quarterly basis to ensure compliance with UCITS standards for portfolio diversification.
