

ATX DVP - ATX Dividend Points

INDEX DESCRIPTION

ATX Dividend Points (ATX DVP) is a special index, which shows the cumulated regular, ordinary gross dividend payments of all index members of the ATX, during one year (from December expiry of the current year to December expiry of the next year), converted into dividend points. After every December expiry, the index value is set back to 0. The index is calculated in EUR and disseminated once a day.

ATX DVP is designed as a tradable index to be used as an underlying instrument for structured products and for standardized derivatives (futures & options).
