Wolftank Group AG notifies of first-instance ruling against subsidiary in Italy

Wolftank Group AG informs that its 100% subsidiary Wolftank DGM Srl has been ordered by the Italian civil court Tribunale Ordinario di Bologna in the first instance to pay damages of approximately EUR 4.5 million to a customer. The case relates to a project from 2020 in which Wolftank DGM Srl acted as subcontractor of this customer and in connection with which environmental damage occurred.

Approximately three quarters of the amount awarded in first instance relates to damages for alleged loss of profits on part of the customer. Wolftank DGM Srl considers this amount to be disproportionate to the incident. Insurance covers around a quarter of the damages awarded, and the company is reviewing its options with its insurer for the remainder.

The decision of the Tribunale Ordinario di Bologna is subject to appeal. Wolftank DGM will take action against the ruling.
