* Proposal to the Annual General Meeting

Group equity without minority interests rose to EUR 291.9 million, the equity ratio of the Semperit Group increased from 58.7% in the pervious year to the current level of 60.1% of balance sheet total. Gross cash flow for the 2008 financial year amounted to EUR 78.0 million.

In regard to the difficult business conditions the results for 2008 were satisfactory. Hence, management will be recommending an increase in the dividend from EUR 0.95 per share for 2007 to EUR 1.09 per share for 2008 at the upcoming Annual General Meeting.

The Semperit Group sees itself confronted with a difficult financial year ahead in 2009 as a consequence of extremely challenging business conditions. Due to the good competitive position and a solid equity capital structure, Semperit expects to emerge even stronger from the crisis and gain market shares in the end.

The annual report and the annual financial report are now available on our homepage www.semperit.at. The upcoming Annual General Meeting will take place on April 30, 2009.
