UBM Development AG: UBM examines the issuance of another hybrid bond

Vienna (pta043/10.03.2025/14:35 UTC+1)

UBM Development AG is currently evaluating the issue of a green hybrid bond in 2025 together with the possibility of a repurchase offer for the hybrid bond 2021 and has mandated Raiffeisen Bank International AG for this purpose. The potential issue of a green hybrid bond this year would strengthen UBM's balance sheet over the long term. The issue of a standard market hybrid bond would then be dependent on the market climate. In this context, UBM's core shareholder expressed his interest to participate in a potential issue with a volume of €10m.
